

JOHNSON LIKES
CHOICE OF COX

AMTIN, Tex., July 6.—In the opinion of acting governor W. A. Johnson, the nomination of governor Cox, of Ohio, was "the political thing to do" and means a sweeping victory for the Democratic party at the November elections.

"We will retain the so-called witch hunters and will rally to the support of the Democrats to beat many thousands of others who do not entertain such views," said governor Johnson, "I believe we will carry many of the doubtful states, including New York, California, Indiana, and even defeat Harding in his own state of Ohio. It is my opinion that the Democrats at the convention acted wisely."

G. O. P. Chief
Says Harding
To Win Ohio

CHICAGO, Ill., July 6.—With senator Harding's opponent in the November presidential race picked, Republicans leaders who gathered here today from across the state to their allies and prepared to launch a campaign, which they declared, would take the Democrats by surprise and gain a start of days if not weeks before governor Cox's Democratic forces can take the field.

Republican leaders professed they were well satisfied with the Democratic choice, Capt. Victor Hertz of Cincinnati in the home state of both presidential nominees, predicted senator Harding would sweep Ohio. Chairman Will H. Hays arrived at noon and following an informal luncheon the campaign leaders began consideration of plans for the coming fight.

Resident Hays the leaders here include Clarence Miller, secretary of the national committee; Victor Hertz central regional director; Ray Benjamin of the Pacific coast region; Fred Carroll, director at Denver, for the Rocky mountain states; Harry Daugherty, senator Harding's campaign manager; A. T. Hart, national committeeman from Kentucky, who led the break for Harding in the national convention; Joe Keating, national committeeman from Indiana; Kent Bone, director of publicity of the national committee; A. C. Remmell, Arkansas state chairman, and Holland, state chairman of Colorado.

FEW FOLKS HAVE
GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist everybody in the valley knows the recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it falls, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so easily, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the glow and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a perfect hair toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not designed for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease—Adv.

COX'S FIGHT TO
BE IN WEST

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

gratulate Cox and help him in his campaign by written statements if that be deemed advisable. It may not help Gov. Cox in the east to have the stamp of Wilson's approval, but that will be somewhat offset there by the approval by the regular Democratic organization.

But in the west, unless Woodrow Wilson says Cox is a progressive and commends Cox to the electorate, the west will not warm up to Cox. The present inclination of the west is to go Republican, anyway, and it will take a good deal of Wilsonian influence to make Cox known in the western country, let alone make him a strong candidate.

Temnamy for Roosevelt.
Considerations of this sort are influencing the Cox managers in trying to select a candidate for vice president. Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, who was expected to run for the United States senate in New York state, has the approval of Tammany for the vice presidency, but while Cox and Roosevelt would please many delegates a ticket such as Cox and Roosevelt, or Cox and Meredith, would be over so much more effective in getting western votes. Meredith is believed to be a Cox man, but he is believed because of the belief that it will cement the Wilson branch of the party which is the fight here and will tend to make for party harmony.

Secretary Meredith fought hard for McAdoo inside the party, but he but under the unit rule the entire vote was cast for Cox. It is said that the Ohio governor, like the secretary of agriculture as a running mate because of the latter's understanding of the agricultural situation in the west. On the other hand Victor Murdock, of Kansas, an original Bull Moose, was to have been the second name. If McAdoo has been named and the same considerations which made the McAdoo support think of Meredith may appeal to the Cox managers.

Cox's Fight Is in West.

The first task of governor Cox is to bring into line the honest western democracy which fought so valiantly for McAdoo. The main trouble will be the opposition to liquor question. Bryan himself has written articles, galore during the convention calling for the "candidate of the west." The women of the west are not inclined to vote for wet candidates, especially if they are championed by Tammany. Governor Cox's statement of today saying the only question involved in his mind was one of law enforcement, will, in all probability, be the line he will take during the campaign, inasmuch as the Democratic platform does not mention the subject. But it will take a good deal more than that to carry conviction. Governor Cox will have to choose between the more or less wet east and the arid west as his battleground, and he will find it just as difficult to be neutral in the fight as a man who tries to carry water on both shoulders.

This convention has given Cox a wet stamp. The supporters of the alcohol crowd in New Jersey, together with other wet states, gave him either his biggest asset or his biggest liability.

It is too early to say, and also it is too early to know, whether Cox and Harding will fight it out in Ohio and eastern states or whether the battle will turn on the west.

Struggle Is Dramatic.
Governor Cox triumphed, however, after a contest not less dramatic or spectacular than the Baltimore convention of eight years ago. And came suddenly after Palmer had released his delegates. Instead of going to McAdoo, the bulk went to Cox because the latter was leading and quickly passed the majority mark.

Many a wavering delegation under the unit rule had entered into an understanding that when a candidate secured a majority its entire vote would be cast for the high man in the race. Moreover, the Cox managers had bored their way into Mc-Adoo's delegations and were bending up a tide which could not be broken even if the entire Palmer vote had

Release Of Palmer Delegates Removed Key Log Of Jam Which Blocked Convention Nomination

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., July 6.—
The release of attorney general Palmer's delegates after the 26th ballot, dislodged the key log of the convention jam, although for a time it appeared that the deadlock between McAdoo and Cox would continue indefinitely.

With 211 Palmer delegates, on the 26th ballot, turned loose, McAdoo gained 34 1/2 votes on the 27th ballot and Cox 68, with one Louisiana and 78 Pennsylvania delegates staying by the attorney general. On that call McAdoo made his principal gain in taking Georgia's 28 from the Palmer column, while Cox gained 19 from Massachusetts, settling him 35 of her 56, with others scattering from other Palmer sources.

On the next, the 40th ballot, Cox climbed from 48 1/2 to 49 and McAdoo from 44 to 45, while Palmer dived to 23, including 18 straight from his home states and the one Louisiana.
McAdoo held the Georgia block for that and succeeding ballots also, but Cox scooped up scattering delegates from the McAdoo column from Illinois, Washington, Alaska and other spots of the McAdoo organization.
Both sides watched in vain for Tennessee to swing her 24 votes from Davis; they remained in the ambassador's column until the last.

Cox Gains Slowly.
The 41st ballot showed a net gain of seven and one-half votes for Cox and a loss of seven for McAdoo, who took four more Pennsylvania votes.

In the first break of Pennsylvania from Palmer, McAdoo got 45 to Cox's 12, but both got a few more later.

Both leaders were under the 500 mark on the 41st ballot on midnight, with each sniping into the other's camp and the Davis voters holding fast. On the succeeding ballot, Cox made his first big gain which por-tended the finale. Closing with 437 1/2 votes on the 41st, Cox rose on the next to 540 1/2, or only 1 1/2 less than a majority of the convention, while McAdoo dropped from 44 to 42 1/2. Then Georgia started the slide toward Cox by swinging 28 solid from McAdoo. Cox picked up more scattering votes, including four Davis delegates in Michigan. McAdoo, however, still held the bulk of the Pennsylvania votes.

Passes Majority Mark.
Cox shot 29 over the majority mark on the 42d ballot, getting 568 as against 540 1/2 on the previous day.
McAdoo dropped 15 on the 42d, going from 42 1/2 to 412. Cox's principal gains were a solid vote from Louisiana, taking a half dozen from McAdoo and 16 1/2 from Virginia, which previously had returned to senator Gless. On that ballot also Cox drew away numerous scattering votes from McAdoo.

The final ballot began at 1:15 o'clock. Almost from the start, Cox began taking single and double votes from the McAdoo delegations. The real breakup developed when three Florida delegates which had stood fast for McAdoo for many ballots swung over and gave Cox a solid 12.
Cox held Georgia intact, gained four more, Illinois from McAdoo and then Tom Taggart announced a solid block of 10 from Indiana for Cox, taking six from McAdoo and Kentucky likewise gave up three McAdoo votes and made it 28 solid for Cox. Louisiana gave another unbroken block.

Final Slide Begins.
Maryland followed after giving Mc-Adoo five and one-half and Cox eight and one-half. Massachusetts then rolled up 35 of her 38 votes to Cox, who also gained six more from Missouri, while five of Nebraska's seven which had been enrolling for McAdoo for many ballots also turned to the Ohioan. Pennsylvania then sent 44, leaving but four to McAdoo, as compared to 47 on the preceding ballot. Vermont, which had been split even, then gave eight solid to Cox.
Virginia gave eight more, Wisconsin turned 15 more, while the Alaska, Hawaii, Philippines and Porto Rico delegations, which had been dividing their vote, went in a bunch to the nominee.

Awaiting a call after the territories were Maryland and Michigan, which had passed, possibly to watch the results of the final ballot.

With the Cox tide in flood, the Colorado change was announced and the long battle ended with the adoption of motion for a unanimous choice.

The West Virginia 14 stood steadfast for Davis during the entire battle. Also the vote of Oklahoma was instructed for senator Owen and nine Nebraska delegates controlled by Bryan voted almost from the first for Owen never wavering.

Harding Raps One-Man Government
In Speech At Homecoming Festival; Neighbors Greet G. O. P. Candidate

MARION, O., July 6.—Marion yesterday paid tribute to senator Harding, Republican candidate for the presidency, upon his return, accompanied by Mrs. Harding, to his home here from Washington for the first time since his nomination. It was a big day for the little Ohio city and one that will go down in its history.

The celebration began early in the day and lasted until tonight when in the presence of a crowd of home folk, the senator and his wife were welcomed by D. H. Cristinger, president of the Marion Civic association.
The senator replied in a brief speech in which he opposed one man government and urged the restoration of normal conditions as a steady force for civilization which he said "has been favored by the supreme upheaval of all the world."

"Let me say to you, friends and neighbors," said the Republican nominee, "if I believed in one man government, I would believe in the superman who would appeal to the sober sense of the republic, and ask our people to plant their feet in secure and forward paths, once more, I would not be here in the capacity which has inspired your greeting."
"Let me pledge ourselves anew, one and all, that this heritage handed to us through the heroism and sacrifice of the founding fathers shall be held sacred, unbridled and undimmed, and American nationality shall be the inspiration of the myriads of Americans of the future, even as it stirs our hearts today."

Partisanship took no part in the day's celebration and both speakers carefully avoided any reference to politics. Mr. Cristinger in his speech paid a tribute to Mrs. Harding in connection with the success attained by the senator, while senator Harding in concluding introduced his wife as "a faithful friend, who knows my faults but has stuck to me."

Mrs. Harding blushingly acknowledged the tribute and bowed while the crowd cheered.

which you and I belong. I heartily rededicate the felicities spirit which you have expressed.

The Democratic nominee sent this message to president Wilson in reply to a telegram of congratulation from the chief executive:

"I am deeply appreciative of your message of congratulations and good wishes. May I in turn felicitate you on your restoration to health."
